BENJAMIN BAILEY TO PAY DEATH PENALTY FOR CRIME AGAINST CHILD

Quick Trial of Negro Charged With Assault at Fairfax Today.

TO DIE ON JULY 11th.

Negro Was Defended by Two Lawyers Appointed by Judge Thornton in Circuit Court.

After a trial which is said to have never been equalled in the state of Virginia for quickness for so serious an offense, lasting less than two hours, Benjamin Bailey was found guilty of criminal assault at Fairfax Court House this morning and sentenced by Judge J. B. T. Thornton to be electrocuted on July 11th.

The court convened at 10 o'clock and the trial immediately commenced. As told in the Gazette on Wednesday Bailey was indicted the day following his arrest on the previous night by a special grand jury which Judge Thornton ordered summoned. He was represented today by J. W. Ballard and R. R. Farr, two lawyers who were named by the judge to act in that capacity.

Among the woitnesses today was Bailey's victim, little six-year-old Mary Follin, and she told a pitiful story upon the stand.

Bailey, while entering a plea of not guilty, practically confessed his guilt on the stand.

About one hour was required for the hearing of the testimony and the jury retired. They were only out 12 minutes when they returned with a verdict of guilty. Judge Thornton immediately sentenced the man.

The case has attracted the greatest interest almost as much as that of John Lewis, the negro who was arrested in the early part of 1897 for assaulting an aged German woman a short distance west of Alexandria. Lewis wandered about dodging the authorities for some time but was eventually discovered and captured in Charlottesville, where he had formerly resided. He was brought to Alexandria and placed in the station house and later turned over to the authorities of Fairfax county. The evidence against him was conclusive and he made a confession before he was hanged in which he stated that the crime against the aged German woman was not the only one of a similar nature he had committed. He alleged that he ill-treated a young colored woman in the vicinity of Charlottesville, and on another occasion attacked a young white woman, prominently connected in that place. Neither of the victims made any report of the crime against them, as they doubtless dreaded the notoriety to which they would be exposed.

Sudden Death of Police Chief.

Newark, N. J., May 30.—While riding at the head of the Memorial Day parade here today, Chief of Police Michael J .Corbett fell dead from his horse opopsite the postoffice building.

He had been prominently connected with Newark's police department for nearly forty years.

Rooster Kills a Child.

St. Brieux, France, May 30.—A big Cochin China rooster attacked and killed a two-year-old baby who tried to take a piece of bread away from the fowl.

Trinidad, Col.—A magnificient bronze statue of Kit Carson, pioneer, soldier, scout, and trapper, was dedicated in Kit Carson Park today.

Jersey City, N. J.—One hundred and fifty drivers and meat handlers employed by the big packing houses of Jersey City and Hoboken are on strike.

Jonesboro, Ark.—The last legal hanging in the State of Arkansas occurred today when James Scott, paid the penalty for the murder of his young wife. Electric chair hereafter.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Chicago, May 30.—Mistaking bichloride of mercury tablets for a headache remedy, Mrs. Edith Calomer, aged 23, took four and a half grains of the poison Wednesday night. She has a good chance of recovery in the opinion of the doctor, who reached her soon after she had swallowed the tablets.

A series of murders, including the assasination of General Thomas Francis Meagher, a governor of Montana Territory, were claimed as his own misdeeds in a confession made by a man known as Pat Miller, who gave his correct name as Frank Diamond, at the town of Plaine, Mont., on Tuesday. Diamond was lodged in the county jail, pending an investigation of his self-assumed crimes. Murders that he claimed to have committed near The Dalles, Oreg., nearly 40 years ago, are not recorded in the official registers there and none of the old residents recall them.

The American liner Haverford, bound from Liverpool to Philadelphia, late last night remained fast on the rocks of Cork head, where she struck yesterday while attempting to enter Queenstow Harbor in a dense fog. All of the 134 saloon and 850 steerage passengers, with their baggage, were removed on tugs to Queenstown. Considerable doubt was expressed last night regarding the possibility of keeping the boat afloat in the event that she is floated. A large hole was stove in the forward part of the hull below the water line, and last night the vessel had settled over the rocks. The forward hole is flooded with fifteen feet of water, but the bulkheads aft have held and the main stern holds are dry.

The plants of the B. F. Sturtevant Company, and of the Becker Milling Machine Company, at Hyde Park, Boston, from which 1,200 workmen walked out on strike yesterday, probably will be shut down indefinitely, according to a statement made by Governor Eugene N. Foss, who owns a controlling interest in both of the firms.

Completely exonerating Major Sylvester of any negligence in connection with police preparations for the suffrage parade in Washington of March 3, and passing only mild censure of he police, the subcommittee of the Senate District committee which investigated the affair, yesterday made its report to the Senate. The subcommittee comprised Senators Jones, Washington, chairman, Dillingham, Vermont, and Pomerene, Ohio. The report was unanimous.

The Senate yesterday voted unanimously to direct an investigation into the charge made by the President that a lobby is in Washingon seeking to influence sentiment on the tariff bill.

The flood in the Potomac river at Williamsport, Md., receded today. The water reached its highest at midnight when it was 17 feet above normal. The river fell 100 feet yesterday, and is again within its banks. Little damage, it is thought, was done to the Chesapeake and Ohio canal.

Miss Katherine Elkins, and her mother, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, had a narrow escape from being killed yesterday afternoon in Connecticut avenue, near Jefferson Place Northwest, Washington, when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a street car of the Washington Railway and Electric Company. They escaped uninjured, though Mrs. Elkins was considerable shaken up.

Four masked bandits held up pay rigs of the Illinois Zinc Company, 5 miles southeast of La Salle, Ill., yesterday afternoon, killed one man and wounded three others, but $6,000 in cash for semimonthly pay of 160 miners was saved by a wild dash of a wounded officer under fire of the robbers, who escapd.

VETERANS IN PARADE.

Ex-Confederate Ride United States Calvary Horses.

Chattanooga, Tenn. May 30.—Gray-garbed veterans of the Southern Confederacy had their annual parade here yesterday the climax of their twenty-third annual reunion.

Thousands of the old soldiers pluckily kept their places in the long line, while those who were too feeble rode in carriages and automobiles. The reunion endede tonight with a ball of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Nearly a thousand of the veterans were mounted on horses of the Eleventh United States Calvary tendered by Fort Oglethrope officials. This was the first time since the war that the Confederate soldiers had used U. S. horses in their parades.

From the time General Bennett H. Young, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans appeared, accompanied by his staff, until the last detachment of veterans passed, there was continuous cheering from the thousands of spectators who lined the route of the parade.

General Young's staff was followed by the Eleventh United States Cavalry Band, the survivors of the Trans-Mississippi Department, the Department of Northern Virginia, the Department of Tennessee, Forrest's Cavalry corps and one thousand mounted veterans. Interspersed among the different commands were the sponsors of the divisions of the United Confederate Veterans in each instance followed by aged veterans riding in automobiles. The Richmond Howitzers old Pelham Guards of Macon, acted as official military escorts to the veterans.

GOT OVER MERCURY POISON.

Bicarbonate of Soda Solution Saved Detroit Engineer.

Detroit, Mich., May 30.—Thomas McCabe, a Detroit engineer, who swallowed 10 grains of Bichloride of mercury, a week ago, has recovered.

A solution of bicarbonate of soda, injected into his veins by Dr. Andrew T. Sherman, saved the engineer, who took the poison because B. Sanders Walker, of Macon, Ga., said death from its effects were painless.

"I believe if bicarbonate of soda is used in such cases a large percentage of them will be saved" said Dr. Sherman. "The injection can be made in any vein. I made eighteen punctures in all, the injections being given every five or six hours. Fourteen drams of bicarbonate of soda in three pints of 'normal water" solution was used.

"The thing of most importance in administering the treatment is to be certain the solution is absolutely aseptic otherwise the patient would be killed by it."

After swallowing the poison and suffering intense agony McCabe decided he wanted to live and aided the physicians in every way possible.

EXCURSION SEASON IS ON.

Decoration Day Ushers in Outings and Picnics on Land and Water

Decoration Day is now regarded as a dies non in most parts of the United States. It is becoming more and more a general holiday, and the pleasures of the day are participated in by old and young alike .

Shortly after the close of the civil war, before sectional blood had sufficiently cooled, the occasion attracted but little attention in Alexandria as well as other places in the south, and the celebration of that day was generally conducted by persons who adhered to the union cause during the four years' conflict, it failing to appeal to all classes. It is not so now, but the present generation as well as many of those who were cotemporaneous with the civil conflict attend the services in the National Cemetery and the best of feeling has prevailed

The government officec were closed today, as were also the city departments, while in many cases workshops have been silent and stores did not open in the afternoon. The occasion has been one of general picnicking.

The excursion steamers made their initial trips of the season on the Potomac.

Hundreds of motorboats were on the river carrying private excursion parties from this city and Washington.

NEWS OF THE DAY

ALDERMEN TO MEET TONIGHT.

License Law for the Coming Year to be Considered—Amendments Will be Proposed.

The ordinance imposing a license tax upon persons conducting business in Alexandria passed by the Common Council at the regular meeting last Tuesday night will come up in the Board of Aldermen tonight. As has been stated, the license upon liquor dealers is increased by the ordinance $100, the amount prescribed being $250 as against $150 required during the last two years. The proposed increase was opposed by a minority in the lower board and opposition to the increase will, it is believed, be shown when the ordinance is read in the Board of Aldermen.

The ordinance is suposed to go into effect tomorrow, June 1st, and should a deadlock occur a serious situa ion might arise.

There is said to be the possibility of tie in the upper board.

The comparatively small increase in the license tox on liquor dealers made two years ago brought about opposition in the Board of Aldermen, but the ordinance was finally passed as it came from the Common Council.

The liquor business has for some time been the subject of considerable comment in Alexandria, some holding that the license for this traffic should be fixed at a high figure. Others have argued that should the tax be placed at a prohibitive figure for the majority of dealers that conditions would not be any more satisfactory than at present, as the sale of liquor surreptitiously would in all probability be increased.

MAYOR'S DRASTIC ORDER.

Ban on All Fireworks on the Fourth of July-- Law Will Be Enforced

Mayor Fisher is determined to put a quietus on the use of fire works of every description in Alexandria so long as he is chief executive, and with this end in view he has notified Chief of Police Goods to enforce the law strictly. Hence all varities of explosives, toy pistols, and the old-fashioned powdercracker included, must give way for sane conditions on the Fourth of July and Christmas. This notice is given in advance in order that dealers in toy pistols and such devices for making noise may not lay in stocks which they will find difficult to move on Independence Day.

The Mayor is following the example of other cities where the authorities have been compelled to eliminate explosives of all descriptions, as the number of accidents in bygone years from cannoncrackers, pistols, guns, etc., have been appalling.

The great majority in all communities are averse to the noise and disorder which has heretofore been regarded as a natural accompaniment of the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of the Prince of Peace as well as that of the country, and such will rejoice to know that such useless features of these great holidays are to be eliminated in Alexondria, as they have been in other cities where safe and sane conditions exist on these occasions.

CASE CONTINUED.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning. William H. Higg, colored, had been arrested at the instance of Frank Ramsaur, colored, who alleged that Higg had broken into his house and stolen a suit case thereform. Higg traced the stolen property to a dealer in second-hand goods. The latter upon being placed upon the stand stated that he did not purchase the suit case from the prisoner but of another colored man, whose name he gave as well as his description. As a material witness in the case was absent, the court ordered that the case be continued until tomorrow morning.

TO HOLD SPECIAL SESSION.

It will be necessary to have a called meeting of the Common Council tomorrow before twelve o'clock to pass the resolution authorizing the temporary loan of $4,000. This can be done without any great inconvenience to members, as it will require only about five minutes, and most of members' places of business are in a few minutes' walk of the Council chamber. President Brumback will be asked to call a meeting.

PYTHIANS ADJOURN.

Will Hold Jubilee Celebration in Richmond—E. R. Boyer Makes Fight for Alexandria.

Norfolk, Va., May 30.—Richmond was selected by the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Virginia, at the concluding session of its annual convention yesterday, as the place for holding the golden jubilee celebration in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the order.

The celebration will be held in October, 1914, and there will be no meeting of the State Grand Lodge until that time.

E. R. Boyer, of Oriental Lodge, No. 7 of Alexandria, led the fight for Alexandria as the places for holding the next Grand Lodge meeting and jubilee celebration, but the Grand Lodge considered Richmond more desirable, owing to its more central location and accessibility to a larger percentage of Pythians of the state.

The jubilee proposition originated at the Grand Lodge meeting in Harrisonburg two years ago and a committee, of which Mr. Boyer was chairman, was appointed to take up the work. Mr. Boyer reported that the response from all over the state had been general, and that sufficient funds from volunteer subscribers were in the hands of the committee to guarantee the success of the project. Mr. Boyer said the proposition had met with more liberal support than he had anticipated.

He made a strong fight in favor of Alexandria, but a majority of the knights favored Richmond, and that city was unanimously selected.

Routine business of no public interest occupied the Grand Lodge at its final session yesterday morning. In the afternoon the visiting delegates and Pythian sisters were entertained at a seashore dinner at Ocean View.

RICHMOND PRESBYTERIANS.

Grace Street Church About to Consolidate With Westminster.

Richmondw, Va., May 30.—Consolidation of Grace street and Westminster Presbyterian churches wede risscussed by officers and members of the former congregation last night when merger to that effect was proposed by the Rev. Dr. T. Cary Johnson, of the Union Theological Seminary. He came as a representative of the Presbyterian League of Richmond whose officers, it appears, conceived the proposition. Dr. Johnson was accompanied by Owsley Saunders another representative of the league.

While the proposition was discussed only tentatively it is understood that the Grace street people thin kexceedingly well of it, and doubtless will agree to the consolidation provided terms are acceptable.

The matter has not yet been presented to the other church, but this will probably be done withi na few days. It is believed that the Westminster flock will also view it with favor.

The site of Grace street church locate dat Grace and Fourth streets, was sold recently for $100,000, and the congregation will have to vacate within the next two years. There has been some talk that a merger might be effected with the Church of the Covenant at Harrison Street and Park Ave. But this is no longer heard.

NO HELP IN VIRGINIA.

Lorimer Not Likely to Get Recognition for Consumption Cure.

Richmond Va., May 30.—Efforts on the part of Former Senator William Lorimer, of Illinois, to secure official recognition on the part of the State of Virginia for the so called "consumption cure" that he appears to be backing, are likely to meet with scant success.

Governor Mann received a letter from the Senaor, who was expelled from the upper branch of Congress, asking that Virginia appoint a representative to look into the merits of the "cure," in which Lorimer represented himself to be greatly interested in behalf of suffering humanity. He mentioned incidentally that Surgeon General Rupert Blue, of the United States Marine and Hospital service, had dispatched an official to the scene.

This leter was referred by the Governor to State Health Commissioner Ennon G.Williams,who has looked in to the matter. While he has made no recommendation, the nature of his action may be guessed at.

It seems an investigation has been made by Journal of the American Medical Society. That paper denounces the scheme and intimates that Former Senator Lorimer is trying to use his efforts to get Investigators appointed as a means of advertising His 'cure' for consumptio nis invention of Dr. Peter P. Duket who has practiced it and advertised it for some years. Eighteen cases on which he bragged as having made cures and looked into and the result, it is stated, was the discovery that fifteen of the people were dead of the consumption, most of them succumbing soon after they were miraculously "healed."

GOOD SHOWING.

Jail Empty And No Work For Grand Jury.

Norfolk, Va., May 30.—Isle of Wright county, Va., having a population of 15,000, claims the record for law and order. No grand jury has been necessary for the consideration of criminal business thus far during the year 1913.

Judge B. D. White, of the Circuit Court, said today that the couny jail is empty and practically for rent. Civil business alone keeps the court alive.

CHARLES CAUGHY DYING.

Richmond Va., May 30.—Charles M. Coughy formerly of the United States consular service at Milan,Italy, is in a critical condition at his home, 219 Governor street, after a long illness from complicated organic trouble. At a late hour his physicians stated he could hardly survive the night.

Mr. Coughy who is a former Baltimorean, is a journalist of note and a scholar. Early in February he arrived in Richmond from Italy, and while going down a flight of steps fell and broke his hip.

The early part of this week Mr. Coughy's condition became serious, and relatives were summoned to his bedside.

Court Annuls a Decree of Divorce After Man Married Again.

Hampton Va., May 30.—Judge Martin of the Court of Law and Equity in Noflok,yesterday handed down a decree annulling the divorce granted to Charles Hopkins, October 24, 1911. The decree leaves Hopkins with two wives, as he has since married.

Mrs. Hopkins No. 1 filed a petition asking for the annulment of the divorce decree, charging that witnesses testified for her husband that she was out of the statewhen they knew she was in Hampton. Hopkins' in reply sent to her petition states states that he is already married and is living happily with his second wife in Wilmington, N. C.

Hopkins secured his divorce on the ground that his wife had abandoned him and that Mrs. Hopkins No. 1 was a non resident of the state. The courts decree today says that Mrs. Hopkins having been at the time a resident of Virginia the decree order of publication on grounds that she was a non resident was invalid and the court was without jurisdiction to grant the decree of divorce to Hopkins.

Hopkins and his wife were married in Hampton November 3, 1903. Mrs. Hopkins declares she was never out of the State of Virginia, though witnesses testified at the first divorce proceedings that she was reputed to be in Louisiana.

The Virginia State Court of Elizabeth City county has ruled that Hopkins must provide for wife No. 1. He likewise has wife No. 2 to provide for. Counsel for Hopkins declined to discuss the next step.

INJURED IN AUTO SMASH.

Machine Goes Down Embankment And Hurts Passengers.

Charlottesville, Va., May 30.— Two men and a woman were injured Tuesday when a big seven-passenger Cadillac plunged over an embankment on the new macadem road just north of the University.

Shep Clements, a well-known chauffeur in the employ of the Jefferson garage was driving the car at the time of the accident, and had three ribs broken and his collarbone wrenched from the breastbone. The other occupants of the car were five students of the University and two women.

The machine in its tumble down the embankment rolled over three times, throwing all the passengers out.

Both of the front wheels of the auto were smashed off, the runing boards crushed, and the iron work twisted out of all shape. It was rolled back to town on the rear wheels with the body supported on a strong wagon.

Mrs. Laura Hinkle, wife of D. H. Hinkle, a retired capitalist, prominent socially and the moher of six sons, committed suicide at her home yesterday afternoon at Lexington, N. C., by hanging herself from the banisters while members of the household were absent. Continued ill healh is assigned as the cause for the accident. Mrs. Hinkle tied a rope around he banister rail at the head of the stairs, and with an end looped around her neck dropped to her death.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, held at the court house of said city on Monday, May 12, 1913.
Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.
Isaac L. Greiner, Complainant,
vs.
Anna R. Knobler Greiner, Defendant.

An affidavit having been duly made as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that she cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the Sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is not a resident of his balliwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years an order of publication having been duly granted in open Court it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within fifteen days after due publication hereof to answer the said suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years, and to do what may be necessary to protect her interests in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Va., and that a copy be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court to the last known place of abode of defendant to-wit: 1202 A St., S. E. Washington, D.C.,as stated in the application for this order of publication which shall be certified by the Clerk, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of this court on or before the next rule day of this court

ROBINSON MONCURE, p. q.

At Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, continued and held at the Court House of said city on Tuesday, April 29th, 1913.
Present. Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge
Alma E. Powell, In Chancery
Vs.
William T. Powell.

Upon the application of the complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, the Court on this 29th day of April, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication.

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bond of matrimony from the defendant on the ground of desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years before the bringing of this suit, the care and custody of the infant child of the marriage, and for general relief, and on affidavit having been filed that the defendant, William T. Powell, is not a resident of the said State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of the said City on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, William T. Powell, at 739 Fairmont street, North West, Washington, D. C., his last known place of abode.

MEMORIAL AND DECORATION DAYS.

Now is the winter of our discontent
Made glorious summer by this sun of York;
And all the clouds that lower'd upon our house
In the deep bosom of the ocean buried.

The meetings of the blue and gray on Decoration and Memorial Days are pleasant annual incidents, in which the survivors of the civil war clasp hands in honest friendship over the mounds of the past where repose issues which brought about disruption over half a century ago.

Ex-Federals vie in honoring the memory of those who sacrificed their lives while battling for their principles and ex-Confederates send wreaths to decorate the graves of those who fell in perpetuating the Federal union. The late President McKinley on one occasion said he favored the merging of ex-Confederate graves with these of deceased soldiers of the Union army and suggested that the expense in keeping their mounds green be borne by the general government.

But while all these evidences of good will between the two sections of the country are being shown the anarchist is shaking his fists at the peace makers and longs for the time when he and his coadjutors can bring on a reign of terror more terrible than the war between the states.

A contemporary a few days ago contained a picture representing an ex-federal and ex-Confederate soldier shaking hands on a platform at a public gathering. Beneath the structure was a wild eyed Jacobin pictured in Holy Writ as a wild beast to be taken and destroyed.

As time goes on and the people of the North and South are understanding each other better than they did in the trying days of 1861 the best of feeling is manifest, and Memorial and Decorations Days bring representative men and women together when all vie for the common good. It was so last Saturday; it was so today. May it ever continue until the end of time and let us ever remember that "Peace rules the day where reason rules the mind."

NO USE FOR JAIL NOR WORK FOR GRAND JURY.

Conditions in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, are to be envied in other parts of the Old Dominion. The county has a population equal to that of Alexandria, and the jail is without occupants, and the grand jury has nothing to consider.

The criminal expenses of cities and counties as well as those of the commonwealth are heavy items in many sections of Virginia, and when the court of any place finds a clear docket and the jail an unused institution, such conditions speak well for the community.

Unfortunately a certain percentage of the human race are prone to violate laws especially those which make misdemeanors of certain acts, and police and courts are necessary adjuncts to all communities. The number of movements intended for the uplift of the human race are being multiplied all the time, and it would seem that if the example set by Isle of Wight couny was urged in every section of the state a spirit of pride might incline the thoughtless to attempt to bring about similar conditions in their cities, towns and counties.

Comparatively few cases have been brought before the police court of Alexandria for some time. Most of those recently have been violations of the dog or traffic laws. The great majority of our people would rejoice to see clear dockets in our courts and an empty jail.

MUCH-MARRIED MAN.

Six Women Claims Homer E. Morrison as Their Husband.

Another woman, the sixth to claim Homer E. Morrison, a real estate dealer, who died in Chicago last week, in some relationship, was heard from yesterday. She signed herself as Mrs. Leslie George Burton, of Kansas City, in a letter to Chief of Police McWeeny. She believed Morrison married her in April in Kansas City, and deserted her in Chciago five days later, taking $22,000 of her money.

The fifth woman appeared Wednesday night in the strange case of Morrison, "man of many widows." She is Miss Eleanor Ostrander, who asserts she was to have married Morrison Wednesday as W. E. Morrison.

Morrison, who died just a week ago, left, is seems, four widows and two fiancees, and the police believe there are other women who are mourning his as husband or betrothed.

trmourn aomondGdw r ramthec smr

Miss Ostrander told detectives she met Morrison six years ago, and during that time he took her to many places of amusement, and gave her several substantial presents.

Before Morrison began courtng Miss Ostrander he had two wives. Two years after he began to pay her attentions he married again. He also found time to pay his respects to another woman, a widow, who says she was to have married him next month. She gave Morrison $1,600.

Miss Ostrander is the only woman of the five who does not claim to have given Morrison considerable sums.

A bomb was thrown last night into the rear yard of the home of Frederick Weisinger, a boss carpenter at Paterson, N. J. The explosion shattered all the windows in the house, but injured no one. Weisinger has not been connected with the strike in any way. The authorities believe the bomb was intended for a strike-breaker who lives several houses away from Weisinger. George Summer Boyd, editor of the New York Call, was yesterday indicted by the grand jury for alleged anarchistic utterances.

Rector's has failed. The corporation operating a hotel and restaurant of that name, one of the most pretentious in the theater district of New York, owes nearly $500,000, and has assets of not more than $50,000, according to an involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed by creditors yesterday.

For RoofS

Why Security Wide-Weld Roofing Meets All the Requirements of the Good Roof

What These Requirements Are

The Good Roof first of all should be weather-proof.

It should be a protection and not an element of danger in case of fire.

It should be durable and wear for years without needing repairs.

It should not have to be painted in order to preserve it.

It should not absorb moisture, or be subject to influence of climatic changes that will produce warping, shrinking, splitting, cracking, breaking, pulling out of nails, tearing of material, channeling or other troubles.

It should be uniform in quality since it cannot be stronger than its weakest point.

All nails should be covered in such a way they cannot rust or break off, make holes through the roof and cause leaks.

Joints should be reduced to a minimum and be permanently water-tight.

The roof should be economical—in other words the cost of securing these advantages should not be excessive.

Security Wide Weld Roofing possesses all these requirements of the Good Roof. Order of

ABUNDANCE OF VEGETABLES.

Strawberry Season Now at its Zenith And Prices Reasonable.

There is no lack of variety in vegetables displayed by local dealers. The recent rains having been of great assistance in forcing growth and putting crops in good shape. The vegetables displayed are chisp and of fine appearance and flavor. Beans and green peas are fine looking and tender. Asparagus is very good. It sells at two bunches for a quarter. Green onions are cheap and fine radishes are also crisp and sell at a low price as they are plentiful. Tomatoes are not too good this season, the excessive rains in the south having washed out the first crop. The second crop, however, now coming in, is much better. Cabbage is of good quality and new potatoes are now on sale in every store, the best bringing 60 cents a peck. Fruits are not so plentiful as might be expected. Strawberries from nearby points however, are very fine and cheap, selling from seven to ten cents a box. Some blackberries are seen, but are high priced.

In meats there is but little change over last week, the packers showing a disposition to keep the market firm. The price of beef will enable the frugal housewife to purchase cuts for roasting and stewing at reasonable prices cuts for steaks and chops bringing the higher prices. The best steak sells for 35 cents. Pork is firm in price. Fresh and salted shoulders will probably be a trifle cheaper than last week. Country butter is plentiful at 35 cents a pound. Eggs selling at 22 to 24 cents.

As this is the season when there is usually big demand for ready cooked and canned meats for lunches outings and picnics, it will be possible to secure best of ready-to eat meats and relishes at very reasonable prices. The stands at the city market show a big assortment of such food stuffs while all grocers carry a large stock especially of pickles and relishes, potted meats and condiments.

VERIFY IT.

The Proof is in Alexandria, Almost at Your Door.

The public statement of an Alexandria citizen is in itself strong proof for Alexandria people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is an Alexandria citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved weak kidneys and now states the result was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

Mrs. Martha L. Byrne, 209 Wilkes stret, Alexandria, Va., says: "I can never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills after all they have done for me, and you may continue using the endorsement I gave some years ago. I take this remedy every once in a while and it keeps me in good health. When I was suffering severely from backache, I got Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys were badly disordered and I felt all run down. I was helped so much by the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I kept on taking them until I was well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole Agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. (4).

NOTICE.

I will be at my store office daily corner King and Lee streets for the next thirty days. All owing accounts at the store will please call or mail checks to settle up. Accounts not paid within 30 days will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.

At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well.

I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

NO LEGAL VERBIAGE THERE

Mary Newhard of Allentown, Pa., Wrote Will in Her Own Homely Way, and It Stands.

E. W. German, register of wills of Lehigh county, admitted to probate the most remarkable will offered here in a century. It was written by Mary Newhard of Laurays, who left several hundred dollars in personal property. It reads:

"I guess it is about time I want my things fixed after I am gone, because I have nobody to depend on except my sisters. I hope they see to things and do it in the way I want it done. It is a great task, but it cannot be fixed otherwise. They always helped me along. I want them to divide my clothes among them, because I have no children, so they are nearest. I have a good lot of things that have to be sold for expenses and then I guess it will reach to bury me decently.

"Such things as my big copper kettle and tubs, washing machine, sewing machine, watch, bedroom suit, bureau, chest, trunk, waiters (two nice ones), casters and other articles are to be sold. There is also a stovepipe in the garret belonging to the parlor stove, a dozen sauce dishes I believe they don't need and a white gravy bowl I paid a quarter for, and two big glass stands, which are to be sold.

"His bedstead, which lays in the garret, I paid a dollar to get it stained and varnished. He can keep that for Mary if he wants to keep her, and my new dough trough I also want sold. I owe a little at Labach's and I want that paid if there is any money left. I can't do it in my lifetime any more. Yours in hope."—Allentown (Pa.) Register.

WHY CALLED "BLACK MARIA"

Boston Negress of Colonial Times Responsible for Designation of Police Patrol Wagon.

A terror to evildoers was the real original Black Maria, and quite as useful in helping to keep the peace as the black maria of today. Black Maria lived in Boston and in Colonial times. She was a gigantic negress, named Marie Lee, and she was mistress of a sailors' boarding house down near the wharves.

Sailors came to her from all over the world. They were often a wild, rough set, but they never gave Maria any trouble, for her huge size was well balanced by her prodigious strength. It is told that she once brought three drunken sailors at once to the lockup when they had grown too obstreperous to be kept longer in the house.

The fame of Maria's strength grew so that she became of great assistance to the authorities, for when men got to be violent or quarrelsome Black Maria was sent for and soon reduced the unruly to obedience. In time her reputation spread all over Boston, and the lawless element grew so afraid of her that often the threat of sending for Black Maria was enough to quell the worst cases of insubordination.

Few people know of Black Maria Lee as the boarding house keeper of Colonial days, but she handed her name down as a menace to the vicious of future generations, in the modern jail wagon. To "send for the black maria" is as much of a threat now as it was in Maria Lee's time.

Clergyman's Son Had Tuberculosis; Now Well

People who have Consumption are often filled with bright hopes of recovery, only to realize that improvement is but temporary. Consumption is dreaded by everyone. Those who had it and used Eckman's Alterative can testify to its beneficial effects. No one need doubt it—there is plenty of evidence from live witnesses. Investigate the following:—

Amenin, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: Prior to Feb., 1908, I was located in Rochester, N. Y., suffering with LaGrippe, which developed into Tuberculosis. My physician gave me one month to live. I was having terrible night sweats and mid-day chills and losing flesh rapidly, having gone from 133 to 135 pounds. I coughed and raised continually and became so weak that walking a few feet exhausted me. On my return home, my regular physician gave me little encouragement. My father, who is a clergyman, heard of Eckman's Alterative and induced me to take it. The night sweats and chills disappeared, my cough became easier and gradually diminished and in a few days I developed an appetite, the first in months. I am now in perfect health, back to 155 lbs. I feel certain that I owe my life to Eckman's Alterative."

(Signed) E. H. COWLES.

"Gentlemen: I cannot find words to express my appreciation of what your remedy has done for my son. It changed despair into hope within two weeks after he began taking it, and without any doubt in my mind, it saved his life. I wish to add my endorsement to every word of his testimonial."

(Signed) REV. J. J. COWLES,
Pastor Presbyterian Church.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

HUDSON'S PHARMACY.

POINTS FOR CHICKEN RAISERS

Evidently Written by One Who Has No Particular Liking for the Humble "Biddy."

Chickens are the most dad-busted, uncertainest creatures that walk the family acre. Not the kind of chickens this lady who is wearing O. Henry's kimono—beg pardon, mantle—writes about, but our old, familiar, feathered friends.

Never raised any? Well, you will, all right. Most universal pursuit in this whole wide world, outside of paying bills. Merchant, banker, broker, farmer, city man, commuter—almost everybody tries to raise chickens at some time or another. Looks easy—that's the deceiving part of it.

And it is easy, after you learn one thing: Little chickens don't know anything, medium-sized chickens don't know anything, big chickens don't know anything. If there is any change of an intellectual nature as the size increases, the big ones know less, if possible, than the little ones.

If there is a wire partition in your pen, with an open door at one end, the chickens will try to plunge through the wire instead of going round and walking through the door. In the course of time, when the birds get heavy, they will hang themselves trying to do this if you don't watch them.

Hen chickens are more valuable than roosters, because they can lay eggs if they will. But if you take a dozen small chickens and raise them carefully, it is always surprising how many of them turn out to be roosters. Sometimes they will sprout tail feathers at the very last minute, just when you are thinking they ought to be ready to lay eggs. At this time you must get busy with the barnyard guillotine, or ax, as it is familiarly called.—Puck.

SHALL ENGLISH GIVE THANKS

Some Favor Suspending the Regular Service on This Occasion Because of No Harvest.

The discussion which is taking place just now as to the propriety of holding harvest thanksgiving services in our churches well illustrates the bewilderment which prevails among educated churchmen struggling to reconcile their more enlightened view of Nature with ecclesiastical traditions.

Some are disposed to hold that a display of public gratitude for benefits so clearly withheld would savor of ineptitude. What earnestness or spiritual worth, they ask, can attend so indiscriminate a thanksgiving? If you ask and do not receive, ought you to be as thankful for benefits witheld as for benefits bestowed.

Theology apart, common sense revolts against a ceremonial which in so literal a sense goes against the grain. Some protest against the empty falsehood of a service wherein is sung the hymn beginning "When all is safely gathered in." How can farmers, crossing their blackened fields to enter a gayly decorated church, be expected to join in a chorus of gratitude?—London Nation.

One on Father.

Brightness personified is little Johnny Pule. Certain friends of the family consider him rather precocious—but that's quite another story. At any rate, he is the pride of his father's heart, and Pule, Sr., invariably refers to the youngster as a "regular chip from the old block."

The other night little Johnny looked up from his stool by the fireside, and ejaculated the query:

"I'm a chip from the old block, ain't I, father?"

"Yes, my son, indeed you are," came the proud reply.

"And, pa, you're the head of the family, ain't you?" asked the simple little lad.

"I am," replied Pule.

"Then," chuckled Johnny triumphantly, "you must be a blockhead!"

But we will draw a kindly veil over what followed.

Good Fellowship.

Good fellowship is as old as man. It is one of the elemental things—rooted in man with good and evil, love and hate. Its temples are wherever good men get together; its shrines and sanctuaries the hearts of men. More than the impetuous comradeship of youth, it is the settled faith of men in men. Passing all boundaries of nation, creed or calling, it asks only the open heart, the honest purpose, the cheerful countenance. Its password is the kindling eye, its pledge the hearty hand—its finest messages are unspoken. It is the golden age made manifest. Rites, religions, men and measures pass—good fellowship remains; for it is eternal love of life, eternal faith, eternal charity and cheer.—James Edward Kehler.

Revelation.

The hero of this story is a famous dramatic author. The plays he has written have electrified thousands upon thousands of people, and he has mastered the art of making men and women laugh or cry at his own sweet will.

On one occasion a friend of his found him at his desk working on a new drama.

"So you are writing a new play?" asked the friend.

In reply the author confessed his sin.

"No," he said. "I am just remembering one from all those I have seen produced. It's easier."—Popular Magazine.
